SEC. 2. The Minister of Finance shall credit to the appropriations of 1864 and 1865 all the amounts appropriated by the Act approved January 10th, 1865, and remaining unexpended on the 31st of March, 1866, not otherwise specially reappropriated, and such amounts shall be deemed no longer available for the objects for which they were originally appropriated.

SEC. 3. The Minister of Finance shall continue to pay the salaries appropriated by this Act, the compensation of Soldiers and Constables, the expenses of the Fire Department, of the Supreme and Circuit Courts, Exchequer Bills and Government Stocks and the interest accruing thereon, together with the interest on the School Fund invested in the Treasury until the 30th day of June, 1868, unless new appropriations are made previous to that date.

SEC. 4. The Minister of Finance shall not cause or allow to be paid out of the Treasury any money for objects not provided for by this law; provided however, that all sums temporarily deposited in the Treasury for which certificates of deposit are issued and the interest thereon may be paid when due, without special appropriation for that object; and provided further, that in the event of war, invasion, rebellion, pestilence or other public disaster arising, His Majesty in Privy Council may appropriate such amount as may be necessary to meet such emergency, and the Minister of Finance shall render to the next Legislature a detailed account of the same.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for the heads of departments in case where special appropriations may fall short to apply to the same the surplus of other special appropriations not required to be expended so as to make up the deficiency; each head of department duly accounting to the Legislature for such transfer; but in no case shall the appropriations for internal improvements in one gubernatorial division be transferred to another.

SEC. 6. No person holding one or more offices for which salaries may be provided shall be authorized to draw for more than the salary of the highest grade of office held by him, if the salary of either of the offices held by him shall amount to two thousand dollars or more per annum, and he shall be entitled to no other or further compensation.

SEC. 7. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after the day of its passage.

Approved the 16th day of July, A. D. 1866.
